

— THE 28TH ANNUAL — MLK WEEK

KNOW [HIS]TORY. LIVE OUR STORY. BE THE LEGACY

January 11 – 19, 2016 • sga.fsu.edu/mlk_week

#KnowHIStory #LiveOurStory #BeTheLegacy | @FSUMLK WEEK | Visit the website for service opportunities, community events, and ongoing activities.

MONDAY
11

 Selma
7:30 PM • Askew Student Life Cinema

Based on true events, Martin Luther King Jr. and his fellow activists lead the march from Selma to Montgomery, Alabama in support of voting rights & to hold steadfast in unity over the misdeeds against them. Despite points of opposition from Lyndon B. Johnson, King and his followers take their protests to the streets in this powerful & stunning depiction of American history.
Hosted by the 2016 MLK Celebration Committee & the Askew Student Life Cinema

WEDNESDAY
13

 Market Wednesday MLK Week Celebration
11:00 AM - 1:00 PM • Oglesby Union Courtyard

Join us as we pay tribute to the Legacy of MLK through special performances and presentations from various recognized student organizations on campus as well as music from his day. The FSU community is invited to share favorite quotes, lessons, and commitments inspired by MLK's legacy on the #MLKtaughtme board. Come early and join us in the march from the Integration Statue to the Union Courtyard.
Hosted by the 2016 MLK Celebration Committee & SOAR Board

WEDNESDAY
13

 History of Diversity at FSU
7:00 PM - 9:00 PM • Strozier Library Cafe

Throughout the years, FSU has continued to make strides in promoting diversity. During this presentation, learn fun and little known facts about how our university students, faculty and staff created and continue to add to the melting pot that is FSU!
Hosted by University Libraries & the Center for Leadership and Social Change

THURSDAY
14

 Voter Registration Block Party
10:00 AM - 2:00 PM • Oglesby Union Green

Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., a crusader for voting rights among the African American community, fought tirelessly to ensure African Americans had an opportunity to cast their vote. In honor of Dr. King's efforts, the Office of Governmental Affairs, in partnership with the MLK Celebration Committee, will be hosting a voter registration drive to encourage voting in the FSU community. The event will have fun activities, a live DJ, and free food.
Hosted by Office of Governmental Affairs

THURSDAY
14

 MLK High School Scholars
8:00 AM - 12:30 PM • Dunlap 2201/2202

The Center for Leadership & Social Change welcomes Leon County High School students to be recognized as "Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Scholars." Selected students from Leon County High Schools will join mentors from Florida State University, Tallahassee Community College, and Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University for a half day full of dialogue and sharing their experiences in college. This event is Co-Sponsored by the Florida State University Police Department.

Interested in serving as a mentor for the half day program?
Email Amber Hampton at aehampton@fsu.edu by 5:00 p.m. Tuesday, January 12th. A brief training will take place prior to the half day program.

Hosted by The Florida State University Police Department and The Center for Leadership and Social Change

FRIDAY
15

 Courtyard Commons Block Party
4:00 PM - 6:00 PM • Courtyard Commons

You are cordially invited to attend Dr. King's birthday block party! There will be snacks, games and opportunities for you to learn about multiple resources available to the FSU community. The Conversation Couch, hosted by Project Conversation will also be there to discuss current events and the issues surrounding race in America.
Hosted by The Center for Leadership & Social Change, The Globe, the Askew Student Life Center, and University Housing

MONDAY
18

 The Freedom March
9:00 AM • CK Steel Plaza

On August 28th, 1963 the largest demonstration seen at the nation's Capitol, attended by 250,000 people, is remembered today as the March on Washington. It was at this march where the famous "I Have A Dream" speech was delivered. On January 18th, 2016, join the Tallahassee Branch and Florida State University Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People as we march to remember the life and legacy of the late Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and the other civil rights leaders who made it possible for equality and justice.
Hosted by the Florida State University and Tallahassee Chapters of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

TUESDAY
19

 MLK: Be the Legacy Exhibit
January 19 - 31st

The 'MLK: Be the Legacy' exhibit is a unique collaboration between a number of Florida State University communities that celebrates the legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and his continued impact more than 40 years after his death. Visit the Oglesby Union to view works from artists who have been inspired by MLK's legacy.
Hosted by the Oglesby Union Guest Services

TUESDAY
19

 Dinner Dialogue
5:30 PM

Dinner Dialogue will provide students, faculty, staff, and Tallahassee community members the opportunity to interact with Dr. Jelani Cobb, the 2016 MLK Celebration Week keynote speaker. Dinner is provided for guests. Submission of an online form is required to attend. Due to the limited amount of seating and desire for the program to reflect a balanced amount of community and university members, we will confirm each guest via phone by Friday, January 15th.

If you are interested in submitting an online form, please do so here:
https://fsu.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_3x8QW5WQr5NNRg9
Hosted by the Center for Leadership & Social Change

TUESDAY
19

 An Evening with Jelani Cobb
Doors 6:00 PM • Event 7:00 PM
Ruby Diamond Concert Hall
FREE for everyone (priority admission given to FSU students with valid ID) • ALL Ages

Cobb is an associate professor of history at the University of Connecticut, where he is director of the Africana Studies Institute. He is also a staff writer at the New Yorker, where he has penned a remarkable series of articles about race, the police, and injustice. His articles include "The Anger in Ferguson," "Murders in Charleston," and "What We Talk About When We Talk About Reparations." In awarding him the Hillman Prize for Opinion and Analysis Journalism, the jury wrote, "No one has done a better job of placing [the events in Ferguson, MO]—and similar happenings in other places like Sanford, Florida, Cleveland, Ohio and Staten Island, New York—in their broader context than Jelani Cobb."

Jelani Cobb has received Fellowships from the Fulbright and Ford Foundations. He is the author of Substance of Hope: Barack Obama and the Paradox of Progress, To the Break of Dawn: A Freestyle on the Hip Hop Aesthetic, and The Devil & Dave Chappelle and Other Essays. His forthcoming book is Antidote to Revolution: African American Anticommunism and the Struggle for Civil Rights, 1931.

Hosted by the Golden Tribe Lecture Series and MLK Week Celebration Committee. For more information about ticketing policies, please visit goldentribe.fsu.edu.

All events are free and open to all FSU students and the public unless otherwise stated. This is available in an alternative format upon request.