Opening statement: President: Jamantha Antoine. Treasurer: Ricardi antoine

- HCC is asking money for Banquet, DJ, and food and beverages. Brining a Haitian DJ allows them to reach their goal of being very authentic. That is why they reached out to Haitian artist. Haitain food is hard to find in Tallahassee. Takes a lot of resources to make the food and it is hard to find and is expensive so they need money to supply the food. They want to hold their banquet at Women Clubs of Tallahassee. They want their new members to experience the haitian club, be proud of their culture and to be around more haitian people.

Questions:

- Austin: Agrees with prive for food because it is keeping things authentic. For the venue, did you look at any other venues and shop around to find the best price?
- Jamantha: Yes we have. The date they have planned for the banquet, is a gameday so they cannot get places on fsu or famu campus. This was the best location they can find.
- Austin: Where did you get the number $1000 for the food?
- Ricardi antoine: 509 caribbean cuisine. Jamantha talked to the owner and they have a good relationship with the owner to be able to have a lower price.
- Sam: Did you look at any places at fsu: places in the union, such as the ballroom, halls etc.
- Jamantha: Yes we did but since there was a game they couldn't get it. Also places in the Union are not yet available for rent.
- Sam: How did you get 100 people, from previous data? A lot of people go to gamedays, do you think you can still reach that number?
- Jamantha: Yes, we usually can reach that number. Since they havent had this event since 2019, people are excited to attend.
- Austin: Are you asking for 2100 or 2300?
- Jamantha: $2300, Hoping to get the extra $200 for decorations.

- Sam: Are table set up included in the price of the venue?
- Jamantha: No, that is why we need money for decorations.
- Austin: Where is the fundraised money going?
- Jamantha: That money is going to food for neighbors and donation items for Haiti. They had fundraising in the spring for the natural disaster that happend for Haiti. Overall, the money goes to Haiti and Membership packages.
- Sam: You fundraised a bit but if we had to cut you, how much of that money you funraised do you think will go to the event?
- Jamantha: They plan on doing concessions and other fundraisers to raise their own money. Which will cover their additional expenses such as photographers.
