■ Notes:

Opening statement: Ethan Corey and Madison Birke

- Bring people to their meetings. Give students access to food, if they do not have the money for it. To be able to not disrupt the normal eating patterns of their members, since their meetings occur during dinnertime.
- Since they are a new club they want to attract students with food
- The reason they are asking for money is to spread awareness of our club and its message, in hopes of creating a more well-rounded, diverse community.
- Asking money for food and t-shirts

Questions:

Austin: Are you guys getting any XL or above?

- They account for all sizes

Austin: How many sizes of each do you have?

- XL 5-6, 20 L, 60 mediums, S/XS 5-6

Marshall: cheapest quote, do you have a breakdown per size?

- 35 small 35 medium 20L 10XL

Marshall: Why are there more shirts than members? Do you have to pay dues?

- 120 members in the club, 50 members that are active. No they are not for paying members. They are for all students.

Marshal: you are ordering shirts larger than XL? Do you have the quantity of the size

- Yes they are ordering more than XL. They do not have a quantity for bigger than XL.
