

Programming Allocation Committee

February 12, 2018

PAC Budget: 33,729.04

Catholic Student Union

- Weekly meetings on Wednesdays
- Serve as a save space
- Just had a super-bowl party
- Banquet at the end of the year
- 150-200 people have attended the event
- Anyone can come to the meeting
- Preferred location is the four points
- No dues are collected
- Churches donate to the event
- 4 share it nights in place in the future
- Most are FSU students that attend the event
- Social Media posts, word of mouth invitations, spirit nights, had flyers going out

Decision of PAC: 3,213 : funding 8 dollars per student, service charge and room charge

American Society of Civil Engineers

- Compete in the conference
- Huge networking event for the students
- 47 students; 6 faculty member; 9 returning; 4 FAMU students
- Conference is in Gainesville
- Looking to give away t-shirts if there are extra students
- FAMU funding fell through
- 20 for the semester, 30 for the year
- 90 members
- Get a 2000 stipend and a grant for 2000
- Deans office is funding
- 2200 from RTAC
- The conference is open to the entire student body
- The extra shirts will go towards being given out at tabling events.
- Decision of PAC: $350 : The funding goes towards 50 students ; not including the 4 FAMU students or the faculty.

PeaceJam

- Funding for water and food during the race and afterwards
- 5k event
- Facebook page marketing and will market the event
- ESP and PeaceJam are combing to host the event

Decision of PAC: $86 : The amount of food is relatively small and they are funding the rest of the

African Students Association

- Educate the people about the African students association
- Having a show displaying talents, designers, dancers
- First time and want to make it an annual thing
- At the FSU ballrooms
- A way to generate more members
- Funds for the DJ
- Dues are 15 dollars for the year
- 60 members
- Dues get t-shirts, keychains, flags, and food
- Fundraising after the show
- Social media, word of mouth, marketing events, market Wednesday
- 200 FSU students 200 non- FSU students
- Campus curls and faces are cosponsoring the event
- 150 for 3 hours
- Decision of PAC: $150 : They are using their fundraising for their event. The contract is

Current Budget: 29,930

Total funded: 3,799