

COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS & RESOURCES

Identity Nights within the Pride Student Union are student-facilitated conversations that create space for specific intersecting identities within the LGBTQ+ community at FSU. Groups generally meet biweekly.

QTIPOC (Queer, Trans, Intersex People of Color) is dedicated to creating safe and inviting spaces for queer, trans, and intersex people of color in the Tallahassee community.

Gender Odyssey is dedicated to the advancement, education, growth, and unity of transgender and gender non-conforming students at Florida State University.

Find more information about QTIPOC, Gender Odyssey, Multi+, Aro/Ace, DisabiliQTs, and Queer Femina Perfecta at sga.fsu.edu/pride/in.shtml to stay updated!

LGBTheology is a student organization dedicated to creating safe space for self-identified queer, trans* people, & allies in the Tallahassee community and conversing on religion & spirituality, to freely practice and find community.

Allies & Safe Zones is an ally development program to promote acceptance and support of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, Questioning, Intersex, Asexual, Pansexual, and Two-Spirit-identifying (LGBTQ+) people. Allies & Safe Zones is coordinated through Student Governance and Advocacy and is offered regularly to the campus community. The program is open to all, regardless of orientation, identity, or expression. Find more information at sga.fsu.edu/safezone.shtml!

ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITIES

The Women's Gender and Sexuality Studies program offers a broad spectrum of gender and sexuality exploration courses. Several majors also have linked courses that connect the major with its gendered intersections. The Women's Studies program also has several courses such as Gender and Religion, Sex Roles in Cross Cultural Perspective, and Sociology of Sex and Gender.

LGBTQ History (HIS 3205) is a new course with a broad focus on the history of LGBTQ+ people covering Western Europe and North America from the eighteenth century to present. The course focuses particular attention to the intersections of sexuality and race, class, and gender. Students will also explore the roles that sexuality has played in shaping political, social, and cultural history. This course has been approved to meet FSU's Liberal Studies History requirement.

CULTIVATING LEADERSHIP

The Pride-U Fellows Program is a two-semester long LGBTQ+ leadership and empowerment program. Participants meet every week to develop solutions to issues facing the LGBTQ+ community. Pride U-Fellows also have the opportunity to mentor LGBTQ+ students in local high schools. Applications are released at the start of each Fall semester.

The SGA Diversity & Inclusion Institute is an 8-week program held in the Spring Semester where participants are challenged to gain knowledge about how to support fellow students with various identities to create a more united campus.

ENGAGE WITH TALLAHASSEE!

PFLAG-Tallahassee: Parents, Families, Friends, and Allies United with LGBTQ+ People to move equality forward. Find more information at pflag-tallahassee.org.

Tallahassee PRIDEFEST is an annual celebration designed to promote peace and understanding among diverse cultures, races, creeds, genders, and sexual identities. It is celebrated every April.

PRIDE STUDENT UNION

The Pride Student Union's mission is to advocate for, empower and provide community spaces for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender and queer people in Tallahassee. They host events throughout the year that focus on LGBTQ+ issues, community building, and advocacy. They celebrate Pride Month during October with programs about LGBTQ+ History, current issues, identities, and campus climate. Join Pride Student Union for their annual fall and spring professional drag shows held the first Friday of the semester, Pride Prom in mid-spring semester, or one of their monthly general body meetings or community social events. Queer Me Out is the annual student-produced magazine dedicated to LGBTQ+ students and issues on FSU's campus full of art, expression, and resources.
