Introduction

Welcome to the 2025-2026 Financial Manual for Registered Student Organizations (RSOs) at Florida State University. This manual is your comprehensive guide to responsibly managing, requesting, and spending Activity & Service (A&S) Fee funds. Adherence to these policies ensures that your organization remains compliant with:

- Florida law
- FSU policies
- SGA Student Body Statutes (Title VIII Finance Code)
- Congress of Graduate Students (COGS) Code for graduate organizations

To keep your RSO (Recognized Student Organization) active and eligible for funding, you must:

- Pass the Financial Certification Exam.
- Understand and follow the rules in this manual.

This manual will give you helpful guidelines, rules, and tips for managing your organization's money. As an RSO leader, you'll learn the skills you need to make smart financial decisions for your group.

The A&S fees (student fees) are meant to support students, but they need to be used the right way. We encourage you to read through this manual and use it as a reference when handling your organization's funds.

Activity & Service Fees Overview

What are A&S Fees?

Every student pays $12.86 per credit hour as an Activity & Service Fee. These funds are used to support:

- RSOs
- Student Government Association (SGA)
- Campus Recreation
- Student Union
- Department of Student Engagement
- Student programming

Spending Guidelines (per Title VIII, Chapter 800-807 of Student Body Statutes):

- Events must be free, open, and advertised to all FSU students
- RSOs must remain non-discriminatory in membership and events
- Pre-approval is required for all purchases through Nole Central
- Purchase Orders must be issued before any transaction

There are rules about how A&S fees (student funds) can be spent to make sure they benefit all students. The state, University, and SGA/COGS all have policies on this. To get A&S funds and have your requests processed quickly, it's important for you to understand your responsibilities as a recipient of these funds.

Nole Central & RSO Banking Basics

What is Nole Central?

Nole Central is FSU's official online portal for:

- ▶ Managing updated and accurate membership rosters
- ▶ Submitting event proposals and purchase requests
- ▶ Accessing RSO on-campus financial accounts

Only officers listed in your Nole Central roster can submit financial requests. To update your roster, your President or Advisor should:

- ▶ Go to your RSO's Nole Central page
- ▶ Click Manage Organization, then Organization Tools
- ▶ Click "Roster"
- ▶ Add or edit officer positions

Contact soi@fsu.edu if issues arise

The finance section of Nole Central provides access to your organization's on-campus account. Under "Organization Tools" you will find the Finance Section where you can create purchase requests, which must be entered to gain the necessary approvals. All money in this account is acquired through the SGA and COGS funding processes and thus must adhere to A&S guidelines. Remember, only pre-approved purchases entered into Nole Central can be paid for by SGA/COGS.

Off-Campus Bank Accounts

RSOs classified as an ASO or GSO may choose to open an off-campus bank account to manage:

- Membership dues
- Donations
- Fundraising proceeds

Best practices include:

- Never use a personal bank account
- Advisors cannot be signers
- Require two student signers for accountability
- Maintain monthly reconciliation records
- Document all transactions, form a financial report, and strictly define consequences for misuse of funds
- Keep records public to members, officers, and advisors

Student Organization Tax Filing Requirements: Student organizations are viewed as legally distinct from Florida State University and must independently comply with federal and state tax laws, including various filing requirements for off-campus accounts.

Opening an Off-Campus Account

To open an account:

- Obtain an Employer Identification Number (EIN) from the IRS (do not use your SSN). Apply at:
<https://www.irs.gov/businesses/small-businesses-self-employed/get-an-employer-identification-number>
- Set up an on-campus mailing address through the Student Organizations and Involvement on the 3rd floor of the Student Union.
- Visit a bank such as Truist (near the FSUCard office) with:
 - EIN documentation
 - Your on-campus mailing address
 - Two current student signers with IDs

Note: Having an EIN does not grant 501(c)(3) non-profit status. RSOs are not covered under FSU's tax-exempt status and will pay sales tax on off-campus purchases. RSOs cannot use FSU's EIN number and must have their own.

Financial Responsibilities of Officers & Advisors

Officer Responsibilities

- ▶ Maintain accurate financial records and share them with members.
- ▶ Ensure guidelines regarding off-campus bank accounts are documented in organizational processes, procedures, and constitutions.
- ▶ Make decisions aligned with your organization's mission and goals.
- ▶ Facilitate seamless officer transitions by updating bank accounts and financial files promptly.
- ▶ This includes passwords, ATM cards and pins, etc.

Advisor Responsibilities

- ▶ Review bank statements monthly with student leaders
- ▶ Guide sound budgeting and expenditure decisions
- ▶ Do not have direct access to or signatory status on off-campus accounts
- ▶ Hold the organization accountable for proactive and sound financial management.

Responsible Ways to Collect Money

Exchanging Funds

When exchanging cash, there should always be two people present, who use a secure cash box to store funds. Groups should provide receipts and be ready to produce one if requested.

If your organization has an event on campus where a large amount of cash is being exchanged, you may be required to have campus police officers present for safety reasons.

Collecting Funds

CASH: If your organization collects dues or accepts donations, your chief financial officer should have a clear method of processing the money. With all cash transactions, receipts should be provided and kept for internal records. All collected funds should be deposited into your organization's off-campus bank account within 3-5 business days.

CHECKS: Checks should be written to your organization and deposited within 3-5 business days. If it is written to the University, and cannot be cashed, funds will be deposited to the FSU Foundation.

DIGITAL FUNDING APPS/WEBSITES: If your organization decides to accept funds through Venmo/CashApp, etc. organizations must have their own account. Organizations may not use a student's personal account.

Self-generated funding (money collected from dues, fundraising, outside expenditures, etc. is not subject to the Finance Code and does not require the approval of any SGA official but still must follow the prohibited purchases.

Fundraising on Campus

Some fundraisers are allowed on Florida State University's campus when not using Activity & Service fees. To host a fundraiser on campus, an EP must be submitted in a timely fashion, and the event cannot require paid admission in a reserved space. RSOs have the privilege to reserve space on campus free of charge in many locations.

Some fundraiser ideas on campus include:

- Sell merchandise while tabling (Tip: In the EP, be very detailed regarding what food is being sold, where it is coming from, and how it is being handled. Prepackaged single serve food in its original packaging is preferred and safest. The University must approve any EPs prior to an organization selling any items.)
- Host a carnival event where students pay for tickets to participate in certain components
- Host a coin war competition with different organizations
- Promote social media challenges (i.e., Dye hair a certain color when monetary goal is reached)
- Fundraising Activities not allowed on campus:
 - Food Sales: Due to the food service contract with Seminole Dining, food sales are not allowed on campus unless you are granted permission from FSU Office of Business Services. Please contact OBS at obs@fsu.edu to request permission to sell food. FSU Office of Business Services may limit the frequency of food sales for fundraising at its sole discretion.
 - Merchandise Sales: Due to the existing University contracts, merchandise sales are not allowed on campus unless you are granted permission from FSU Office of Business Services. Merchandise sales with FSU marks will not be approved. Please contact obs@fsu.edu to request permission to sell merchandise.
 - Money exchanging hands: Since money will be exchanged at your event, you must consult with FSUPD about having an officer present. Please contact FSUPD Lieutenant Jacob (ejacob@fsu.edu or 850-644-2900) about the event.

“Organizations interested in hosting digital fundraisers are encouraged to work with the FSU Foundation to coordinate a Spark Campaign, <http://spark.fsu.edu/Home/AboutSpark>.”
