Based on the information reviewed, the alleged conduct does constitute one (1) violation of SBS §710.6(C)(3).

If you do not agree with the decision, it is within your right to appeal to the Electoral Commission to have it reviewed up to the Supreme Court. All students will have the option to present their case directly to the elections commission, choose a third-party to represent them, or be appointed a law student by the Supreme Court to represent their case before the Elections Commission.
