

Petitioner, Sara Larancuent, Supervisor of Elections, raises a complaint that Respondent, Francis Ebuara, violated SBS §710.6(F)(1) by not submitting a complete Final Expense Statement.

In this case, the alleged violation concerns the submission of an incomplete Final Expense Statement. Pursuant to SBS §710.6(F)(1), the recipient had until Tuesday following the election by 4 p.m. Eastern Time to correct any issues with the document. Failure to correct all issues and submit a violation by the deadline has resulted in a Schedule 4 Violation.

If you do not agree with this decision, it is within your right to appeal to the Electoral Commission to have it reviewed up to the Supreme Court. All students will have the option to present their case directly to the Elections Commission, choose a third party to represent them, or be appointed a law student by the Supreme Court to represent their case before the Elections Commission.

This qualifies as a Schedule 4 Violation.

Important note: This candidate was a clerical error and did not intend to run, however I still must complete my duties and responsibilities by filing the disqualification.

Petitioner, Sara Larancuent, Supervisor of Elections, raises a complaint that Respondent, Diego Fermin, violated SBS §710.6(F)(1) by not submitting a complete Final Expense Statement.

In this case, the alleged violation concerns the submission of an incomplete Final Expense Statement. Pursuant to SBS §710.6(F)(1), the recipient had until Tuesday following the election by 4 p.m. Eastern Time to correct any issues with the document. Failure to correct all issues and submit a violation by the deadline has resulted in a Schedule 4 Violation.

If you do not agree with this decision, it is within your right to appeal to the Electoral Commission to have it reviewed up to the Supreme Court. All students will have the option to present their case directly to the Elections Commission, choose a third party to represent them, or be appointed a law student by the Supreme Court to represent their case before the Elections Commission.

This qualifies as a Schedule 4 Violation.

Important note: This candidate was a clerical error and did not intend to run, however I still must complete my duties and responsibilities by filing the disqualification.

Petitioner, Sara Larancuent, Supervisor of Elections, raises a complaint that Respondent, Lucas Porcelli, violated SBS §710.6(F)(1) by not submitting a complete Final Expense Statement.

In this case, the alleged violation concerns the submission of an incomplete Final Expense Statement. Pursuant to SBS §710.6(F)(1), the recipient had until Tuesday following the election by 4 p.m. Eastern Time to correct any issues with the document. Failure to correct all issues and submit a violation by the deadline has resulted in a Schedule 4 Violation.

If you do not agree with this decision, it is within your right to appeal to the Electoral Commission to have it reviewed up to the Supreme Court. All students will have the option to present their case directly to the Elections Commission, choose a third party to represent them, or be appointed a law student by the Supreme Court to represent their case before the Elections Commission.

This qualifies as a Schedule 4 Violation.

Important note: This candidate was a clerical error and did not qualify to run, however I still must complete my duties and responsibilities by filing the disqualification.