

Order on Remand from Dr. Hecht

Chief Justice Donnelly writing for the Court.

Jurisdiction

This Court has jurisdiction on remand from Dr. Hecht over the case Walker v. Unite.

Order

Dr. Hecht, this Court's superior, remands this case with an order that the Court impose fines for three violations rather than the two violations this Court had previously ordered. Dr. Hecht made the finding that the placement of each sign is an individual violation.

Holding

This Court orders The Unite Party to pay $138 for three violations regarding placement of signs. The Court is aware that The Unite Party has already paid 88$ worth of fines. 63$ of that is in regards to the current case. The Unite Party must still pay 75$ for the single additional violation found.
