Section B – Duties and Qualifications of IRHC Executive Board

1. Term of service for IRHC Executive Board members begins upon elections and ends following Torch Awards at the end of the spring semester of the subsequent year.
2. Elected members will be considered “in training” following their election. These members will assume responsibility for IRHC following the Torch Awards at the end of the spring semester.
3. It is the responsibility of the current IRHC Executive Board members to properly train and mentor their incoming replacement until the Torch Awards. This includes providing a proper transition report by Torch Awards.
4. All IRHC Executive Board members must make arrangements to be on campus for the following:
 - a. Advisor led teambuilding and/or training activities

- b. Move in up to two weeks prior to residence hall opening in the Fall Semester for the purpose of IRHC training, with exception granted at the discretion of the Advisor(s)
 - c. Move in up to four days prior to residence hall opening in the Spring Semester for the purpose of IRHC training, with exception granted at the discretion of the Advisor(s)
5. It is the responsibility of the Director to ensure that all IRHC Executive Board responsibilities are fulfilled by themselves or the Executive Board over the Summer Sessions(s).
 - a. In case of financial hardship or other extenuating circumstances, an Executive Board member may have this requirement waived with the unanimous approval of the Director and Advisor(s).
6. The IRHC Executive Board members shall enforce, as well as advise the Director on, policy decisions pertaining to the management of Hall Council(s) and other matters.
7. The IRHC Executive Board members shall update and revise the codified policies at least once per semester.
8. The IRHC Executive Board members shall coordinate Hall Council candidate interest sessions starting in the first week of classes and the fall Hall Council training program no later than three weeks after elections have been completed.
9. The IRHC Executive Board members shall provide opportunities for University Housing residents to interact on a campus-wide level throughout the year, such as through programming initiatives or other educational experiences.
10. The IRHC Executive Board members shall prepare and present a fiscal year budget (July 1–June 30) for approval by the entire IRHC Board no later than 2 weeks after the first IRHC Board of Directors meeting in the Fall Semester. The IRHC Executive Board and Board of Directors, by majority vote, must approve the budget.
11. The IRHC Executive Board members shall not serve simultaneously as any of the following:
 - a. Resident Assistant
 - i. If a current RA runs for and is elected to an Executive Board position, during the traditional Spring Semester Election Period, they are permitted to complete their contracted semester of service prior to assuming their Executive Board role.
 - b. Hall Council member
 - i. If a current Hall Council member runs for and is elected to an Executive Board Position, during the traditional Spring Semester Election Period, they are permitted to complete their term of service prior to assuming their Executive Board role.

12. The IRHC Executive Board, by a majority vote, may elect to temporarily suspend a particular requirement of an Executive Board position with the exception of GPA, judicial standing, and residency requirements.
13. All IRHC Executive Board candidates must complete the application process as specified by the current board.
14. The Director must reside in Tallahassee for a Summer session, with exceptions granted by the Advisor(s).
15. Other IRHC Executive Board members do not have to live on campus during the Summer Session. However, they must provide summer contact information for the Director in order for business to be conducted.
16. IRHC Executive Board members shall be assigned, at minimum, one Hall Buddy at the start of each semester through a joint decision by the Director and the Advisors. As a Hall Buddy, an Executive Board member must:
- a. Attend meetings and events of the Hall Councils when possible.
 - b. Act as a primary resource to the Hall Council and Advisors in terms of questions and concerns they have.
 - c. Under no circumstances afford their Hall Buddy special privileges or treatment, which shall be determined by the majority of the Executive Board as anything that provides that Hall Council with a unique or unfair advantage and/or disadvantage over other Hall Councils. Doing so is grounds for impeachment.
 - d. In the case of an IRHC Executive Board member failing/struggling to meet their other responsibilities as outlined in the bylaws, have their duties as a Hall Buddy lessened/eliminated as determined by the Director and Advisors. In this instance, the responsibilities of a Hall Buddy will be transferred to another member of the IRHC Executive Board, determined by the Director and Advisor(s) of IRHC.
17. The IRHC Executive Board will meet weekly before Board of Director Meetings, on Mondays at 7 pm.
